Re: Purported Complaint by Carl Boyanton; Response from Committee to Elect Mike Ezell

Dear CELA:

My firm represents the Committee to Elect Mike Ezell ("Committee"). Through a recent press release issued by Carl Boyanton, the Committee became aware of a purported Federal Election Commission ("FEC") Complaint by Mr. Boyanton alleging campaign finance violations by the Committee. Although the Committee is unaware of any official filing by Mr. Boyanton, the baseless nature of Mr. Boyanton's claims require a rapid response.

The Complaint makes two allegations: that the Committee impermissibly accepted contributions from federal contractors, in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30119(a)(1); and that the Committee received campaign contributions in excess of statutory limits, in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a), (f). Both allegations are entirely baseless.

The contributions at issue came from individuals associated with federal contractors, not from federal contractors themselves. These individuals donated their personal funds, as permitted by 11 C.F.R. § 115.6.

As for being allegedly excessive, the contributions were made to The Ezell Victory Fund ("Fund"), which is a Joint Fundraising Committee ("JFC"), composed of the Committee and the National Republican Congressional Committee. The Fund distributes contributions to the Committee and NRCC in accordance with an agreed-upon formula.

The contributions were made to the Fund on August 26, 2025. Thereafter, on September 18, 2025, the Fund transferred the maximum $7,000 per individual donor, minus a pro-rata share of expenses, to the Committee. Out of an abundance of transparency, the Committee included in its reports both the total amount received from the Fund and accompanying memo items breaking down that amount per individual donor. Mr. Boyanton falsely treated the memo items as separate contributions from the total transferred by the Fund. This double-counting renders Mr. Boyanton's allegations erroneous.

For the reasons set forth above, to the extent Mr. Boyanton filed or files the referenced Complaint, the Committee respectfully requests that the FEC take no action against the Committee and/or its Treasurer and promptly close this file.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP
